

Affidavit Of Johnny Williams

1. Affiant Johnny Williams is a real estate agent in the state of Alabama.
2. On September 11, 2006, I arrived in the parking lot of the Olive Garden restaurant (7701 Crestwood Blvd Birmingham, AL 35210) to meet with James Graveling for the purpose of his signing real estate listing agreements for about a third of his houses so as to provide him the means of selling or short-selling them in order to seek to avoid the possibility of their going into foreclosure, their needing to be listed with a real estate agent in order to qualify for trying to avoid foreclosure.
3. At our meeting that day (a gusty one) we saw the entire Eastwood mall had been demolished and cranes were in the process of picking up the rubble, I-beams and so forth and lifting them up and putting them into dump trucks which then hauled the debris off.
4. There were two other real estate agents as well present there that James was signing listing agreements with, Ron Saylor and Katha Gold. After meeting there, we also went to Kmart where James made us copies of the keys of the various houses he had so that we could do showings of them.
5. I did list these houses (signing some documents with James later) and tried to sell them even though none of those listed by me were able to be sold.

Signed this 5/16/07 day of May 14, 2007

Acknowledged and sworn to before me by Ron Saylor to be his voluntary act on this 16 day of May, 2007.
