

James Graveling

Exhibit E

From: "Eagle Forum of Alabama" <alabamaeagle@gmail.com>
Date: Friday, October 09, 2015 12:41 PM
To: <jgraveling@windstream.net>
Subject: Statement Calling for Constitutional Resistance to Obergefell v. Hodges

Email not displaying correctly? View it in your browser.

More than sixty prominent legal scholars have issued the following statement on disobedience to Obergefell v. Hodges:

"We are scholars and informed citizens deeply concerned by the edict of the Supreme Court of the United States in Obergefell v. Hodges wherein the Court decreed, by the narrowest of margins, that every state in the country must redefine marriage to include same-sex relationships.

The Court's majority opinion eschewed reliance on the text, logic, structure, or original understanding of the Constitution, as well as the Court's own interpretative doctrines and precedents, and supplied no compelling reasoning to show why it is unjustified for the laws of the states to sustain marriage as it has been understood for millennia as the union of husband and wife."

Read the entire article from American Principles Project here.

In case you missed it, Eagle Forum President Eunie Smith and Dr. John H. Killian, Sr. recently co-authored an oped on the case which was published on AL.com. You can see the oped here. It was also highlighted by World Net Daily. You may read that article here.

DONATE NOW