Re: Exhortation to Interpose and Nullify Obergefell v. Hodges per God-given and Constitutional Authorities to prevent more of God's judgment on Alabama and America

AFFIDAVIT

Comes now Affiant James Frederick Graveling, redeemed by Jesus' lifeblood for His praise, one of the people of Alabama, and hereby asserts he is competent to give the following declaration based on his personal knowledge to the best of his belief, unless otherwise stated, and that the following is true and correct to the best of his knowledge and belief, having been duly sworn:

October 9, 2015

URGENT message from an ambassador for Christ (2 Corinthians 5:20)

I urge you with all that is within me: do the will of God to oppose, interpose, nullify and overcome Obergefell v. Hodges and its repercussions per God-given and Constitutional authorities. God, His word, the Constitutions, your oaths to uphold them and the people all require you to do so.

I swear to you based on firsthand personal knowledge: God's judgments already falling on our land add greater urgency to this requirement. How can I make such a claim? Ever heard of someone testifying to an answer to prayer? I hereby swear: as Elijah asked God to judge Israel with drought BEFORE the drought so that it would turn back to God, be blessed and people saved (James 5:15-18; 1 Kings 18), so I asked God - IF He thought it was right - to judge America with 911's Twin Towers and Pentagon attacks about a 1/2 hour BEFORE the attacks so it would turn back to God and be blessed and people saved. (www.anchoroftruth.org gives Scriptures showing praying such prayers is right at times).

God answered my prayer with 911.
One specific transgression of God's law I asked for a small measure of judgment on that morning for (NOT all we deserve or having coming unless we repent of our sins and trust Jesus to save us) was homosexuality (as well as idolatry and tens of millions of murders by abortion).

To verify my claim, (because God would not answer my other prayers if I were lying) I have enclosed Exhibit A with the signatures of others who recall praying as a congregation for the Alabama drought and that the Lord Jesus' answered with it in order to call us to repent of our sins. As well, see Exhibit B: Affidavit By Rev. James Graveling That God Gave A Vision Of A Drought Coming For Alabamas Sins Also Relating to Roy Moore And 10 Commandments Well Before The Drought and Exhibit C: Witnesses That Rev. James Graveling Told Of God Giving Him A Vision Of A Drought Coming For Alabama's Sins Also Relating to Roy Moore And 10 Commandments Well Before The Drought. Further circumstantial proofs and exhibits (communications from/to President Bush, character witnesses, affidavits, recordings, audio-visual etc about my claims about 911) are or are being placed on www.anchoroftruth.org as I have opportunity.

about 911 per Psalm 66:16-20; Proverbs 28:9; 1 Peter 3:7, et al)
America didn't repent after 911, nor after I belatedly shared about my prayer on 911 and God's answer. In 2008, God was still robbed of His glory and hundreds of millions were still on their way to hell, so, learning from Scripture (Lev. 26, Amos 4 et al) I asked God for what resulted in the Great Recession to call us back to Him.

This corroborates the Bible's warning that God judges nations that turn from Him.

Because we are not repenting but rebelling more against Him (witness increased idolatry in the White House, courts and people's lives; increased murder - now active and passive euthanasia via Obamacare as well as right of conscience violating Obamacare plus this hideous Obergefell), Scripture shows that more judgment nears.

Unless you do what you can to interpose, nullify and otherwise oppose and overcome Obergefell v.

Hodges, more cataclysmic judgments and suffering will come to our land.

You are public servants at a time when things are severe and critical: given our idolatry, God's requiring life for life requittal and vengeance for the 56 million murdered (I tremble to my toes!), and after the Supreme Court's approval of turning America into a Sodom and Gomorrah, our nation's very existence may be at stake before God.

The purpose of a civil magistrate according to Scripture (Romans 13) is to: a) praise those who do good (as God defines good in His law) and b) punish those who do evil (as God defines evil in His law). Those public servants who do so thereby avert and prevent the wrath of God from falling upon and consuming a people (cf. Deuteronomy 21; Psalm 79: 10; Matthew 23: 35; Luke 18: 7; 2 Samuel 21: 1-14; Romans 12-13 (re the government's call to avenge evil)). Obviously, Revelation 6: 9-11 shows that when saints find their shed blood unrequited by human government on earth, they ask God in heaven to requite it. This is one strong reality of my prayer for the first events of 911: because government refused to punish the evildoer (for instance in murdering unborn children), I – after I and millions of other Christians for decades tried to exhaust every other avenue- resorted to appealing to the Most High Judge and Governor of the Universe to show forth a drop of His anger against such evil. Obviously all the Scriptures I just cited, Old and New Testament, apply directly (at least by general equity- cf. Westminster Confession Chapter 19) and are for our instruction, edification and comfort (Psalm 119; Romans 15: 14; 2 Timothy 3: 16-17; I Corinthians 10: 1-14).

SO KNOW IT AS A FACT FROM FIRSTHAND PERSONAL SWORN WITNESSES: GOD IS OUTRAGED with Alabama's terrible passivity and treatment of God, His Ten Commandments and Chief Justice Roy Moore who suffered religious persecution for faithfully fulfilling his oath of office to God to uphold the Constitutions of Alabama and America. All who stood by and passively watched it occur need to repent - also any justices who threw Moore under the bus.

God is also outraged with America's turning from Him, His Son Jesus (how dare they be ashamed of the One who dared to give His life blood to save millions of them, to give their nation its birthright, its Christian based Declaration of Independence and Constitution and so many deliverances?! - He will be ashamed of all those who are so on Judgment Day infallible Scripture warns -Matthew 10: 32) and with its breaking His commandments. The majority of American "leadership" are prostitutes to the bankers or such slaves to sin themselves they just lead us to greater wrath and vengeance while many others God calls to interpose, nullify, overcome evil in this horrible situation just sit by waiting it out in guilty silence, passively allowing greater law breaking which must necessarily result in greater wrath!

I already informed President Bush and America's media that God struck us for our sins in 911 also for homosexuality. God warns nations that tolerate or even approve of homosexuality (which the state clearly does by protecting rather than punishing such acts, when it even calls and treats them as though they were "marriages". He who listens to man who says he may redefine what God calls marriage rejects God and His law.

The Supreme Court has rejected God's law and word which clearly and indisputably prohibits such evil sexual acts. They have other gods therefore: their own lusts (probably so with Kagan) or popular opinion of sinners in rebellion against God, sinners in the hands of an angry God (see Jonathan Edward's sermon by the same title online). They clearly know they do wrong (Romans 1-2- the works of the law are speaking to their conscience- they really know deep down what is right and wrong here). In a storm of controversy where God's law as expressed by the Christian view is well known in America and Bible's are readily available, they know they break God's law and pretend they will not suffer His wrath similar to the serpent's saying: "you shall not surely die". But let God be true and every man a liar. He is God, and we are not. This is His world. There are eternal and temporal consequences for such abhorrent behaviors and persisting in them despite the calls of Christians and pastors to repent and find forgiveness, freedom and grace in Jesus.

Hear the word of the LORD from Jude 7 which applies to at least a good part of America and its Supreme Court which has given themselves over to impurity:

as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them in a similar manner to these, having given themselves over to sexual immorality and gone after strange flesh, are set forth as an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire. (Jude 7)

After seeing how speedily God answered prayer (Luke 18) on 911, after seeing Him answer other prayers (the drought and 2008's Great Recession), I have full of fear of God. I have serious testimony to corroborate the serious truth you should already know from Scripture: GOD ALMIGHTY IS NOT FAVORING OR GUIDING THIS STATE OR NATION ANYMORE (though the Alabama constitution SAYS it seeks His favor and guidance), HE IS VERY OUTRAGED WITH ALABAMA AND AMERICA. And my heart is broken.

Though because of my own failure in belatedly fulfilling my vow that if God would answer I would then inform President and media that I had prayed for 911's events in light of the Scriptural reasons to do so, I keep hoping and praying God will turn us back, I do not see us turning back despite years of calling people to repent and sharing with government officials and others the call to repent. While I hope God will be sparing in any future judgments (also due to my forgiven belatedness), yet I tremble for my country when I read Scripture. When I think of how angry He already revealed Himself to be (Romans 1:18), I fear words like Isaiah 66:15-16 may be true and next for us: "for behold, the LORD will come with fire and with His chariots, like a whirlwind, to render His anger with fury, and His rebuke with flames of fire. For by fire and by His sword the LORD will judge all flesh; and the slain of the LORD shall be many."

Actions speak louder than words. By our actions in Obergefell, what are we saying LOUDLY to God? By no less than the Supreme Court (the worst and most disgusting in history - not stopping idolatry, murder/Obamacare or now sodomy), America in Obergefell IS SHOUTING TO THE ALMIGHTY CREATOR OF THE UNIVERSE: "SEND MORE WRATH! We dare you to judge us God!"

Would you like to see Alabama and our nation come under more anguish, distress, tribulation? You are called NOW to be protectors of justice, righteousness and truth JUST SO THAT God's wrath will not fall upon us! But if you do not restraint the evildoers and their persecution of praiseworthy righteous Americans, you will help evildoers, bear guilt for it (cf. Leviticus 19:17) and ultimately suffer for it from the hand of Almighty God. So, "fear God and keep His commandments". And if you claim to love Jesus, prove it by keeping His commandments (John 14:15).

Consider how appropriate are the words of God through Jeremiah 5 to our situation:

Run to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem; See now and know; and seek in her open places if you can find a man, if there is anyone who executes judgment, who seeks the truth, and I will pardon her. Though they say, 'As the LORD lives,' surely they swear falsely." O LORD, are not Your eyes on the truth? You have stricken them, but they have not grieved; you have consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction. They have made their faces harder than rock; they have refused to return. Therefore I said, "Surely these are poor. They are foolish; for they do not know the way of the LORD, the judgment of their God.... Because their transgressions are many; their backslidings have increased. "How shall I pardon you for this? Your children have forsaken Me and sworn by those that are not gods. When I had fed them to the full, then they committed adultery and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses. They were like well-fed lusty stallions; every one neighed after his neighbor's wife. Shall I not punish them for these things?" says the LORD. "And shall I not avenge Myself on such a nation as this?"

Test what I say by the standard of right and wrong given in God's Word, the Constitution, common law,

Supreme Court rulings as well as American laws, some of which follow.

THE CREATOR CLEARLY REVEALS WHAT HIS LAW IS ABOUT THIS MATTER IN CREATION AND SCRIPTURE:

Creation clearly reveals that the man and woman were made to copulate and that humans enter this world only through a man and woman's union. The Bible further clearly reveals that marriage is a Creator given, divinely ordained institution between a man and a woman who enter covenant for life with one another. It further reveals that the Creator's law and institution concerning marriage is not open or subject to revision:

Matthew 19:4-6: And He answered and said to them, "Have you not read that He who made them at the beginning 'made them male and female,' and said, 'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh'? So then, they are no longer two but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let not man separate."

Jesus there showed that marriage is a creation ordinance, not simply an entity thought up by Christians nor then one that may be tampered or twisted into something other than the Creator's purpose for it. Therefore the state, which has no other authority than what God has given it (see Romans 13 et al and the 9th and 10th Amendments of the Bill of Rights read in the light of the Declaration of Independence) must recognize and defend the Creator's revelation in creation and the Bible and the Creator's clear definition and purpose of marriage, not men's mere opinions on the subject.

God reveals as well that all forms of sexual gratification and pleasure outside the confines of the marriage bed violates His law concerning sexuality and marriage:

Hebrews 13:4: "Marriage is honorable in all, and the bed undefiled: but fornicators and adulterers God will judge."

I Thessalonians 4:1-8: Finally then, brethren, we urge and exhort in the Lord Jesus that you should abound more and more, just as you received from us how you ought to walk and to please God; for you know what commandments we gave you through the Lord Jesus. For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you should abstain from sexual immorality; that each of you should know how to possess his own vessel in sanctification and honor, not in passion of lust, like the Gentiles who do not know God; that no one should take advantage of and defraud his brother in this matter, because the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also forewarned you and testified. For God did not call us to uncleanness, but in holiness. Therefore he who rejects this does not reject man, but God, who has also given us His Holy Spirit.

Such language from the apostle Paul lets us know that we are dealing with matters that affect the eternal souls of those involved!!!

Leviticus 20:13 commands: "If a man lies with a male as he lies with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination. They shall surely be put to death. Their blood shall be upon them." See also I Corinthians 6:9-11.

Romans 13 and the rest of Scripture from Genesis to Revelation make clear that God holds the state and those in office accountable to do their God given duty and right to punish those who break God's law.

GOD AUTHORIZED AND REQUIRES YOU TO UPHOLD HIS LAW NOW:

You were created by God (not a big bang). He gave you life, liberty and your other rights. He as well alone is the One who gives government (through the people in America) authority to uphold His law (see America's father's Declaration of Independence on this point in the end note). As one in authority, it is your duty to administer justice and apply the law. You are accountable to God to do so.

Rulers are to be "not a terror to good works, but to evil." (Romans 13: 3). God's word defines good and evil by His Ten Commandments: "all Your precepts concerning all things I consider to be right; I hate every false way." (Psalm 119: 128). Either a person is for and obedient to the Lord Jesus or he is against Him. He declares: "the one...who trembles at My word" He will look upon with favor; but "the LORD...fully repays His enemies!" (Isaiah 66: 2,6) Today many in power call bad what is good and good what is bad, but God requires you to take a firm stand on the foundation of God's word. Without this foundation, there are no absolutes, and therefore no basis for one man to submit to another, for law or government. Without the Creator's transcendent standard for right and wrong, man is left confused, vacillating, whimsical, subjective and then it is no longer right that makes might but might that claims to make right.

Recently the Supreme Court of the United States of America issued an opinion on the matter of marriage in Obergefell v. Hodges which effectively perverts the Creator's ordinance, law and institution. Your duty is to uphold the rule of law: God's as 1) He revealed in creation and infallibly in Scripture; b) God's rule of law as the fathers recognized in their Declaration of Independence.

YOU MUST OBEY THE CREATOR'S LAW IN THIS MATTER IS FURTHER ENJOINED UPON YOU BY AMERICAN LAW

Congress -for America- affirms that the Bible is God's Word and the very foundation of our republic. Congress in that law tells us we "need to study and apply" God's word to our lives and land (Public Law 97-280 -see the AUTHENTICATED U.S> GOVERNMENT INFORMATION print out- Exhibit B: F God Almighty takes that seriously. And you are to take that seriously: it requires you to act in accord with it. We made solemn contracts or covenants to the God of the Christian Bible as Supreme Court cases and many other authorities document. Even apart from such contracts however we are already required to trust and obey Him as the creation and Scripture (such passages as Psalm 2 and Matthew 28: 16ff) make clear. We dare not further anger the God our Alabama Constitution says we seek the favor and guidance of.

I hereby exhort this court so to what Congress in Public Law 97-280 says to do. If you want to see the good America has stood for and enjoyed to continue, rule in accord with the Creator God's word, otherwise you will be contribute by passive silence to America's destruction.

You do your work before God (Psalm 82 et al). As His word shows (cf. Joshua 7; Deuteronomy 21 et al) He judges by what you do whether and how to treat Alabama and America – by whether or not you obey or disobey His word. God's word teaches in many places that there are covenantal/corporate guilt implications to your decision. As the Public Law 970-280 implies, rejecting God's word which is the foundation of our republic, is an attack on the American republic for which you could be considered guilty of treason and worse, greater charges than this from God could be brought against you.

Even if America had no Christian heritage, even if there were no Public Law 97-280, you would still be accountable to and before God to do what is right as His law and word defines it because God as the Creator of the universe lovingly speaks to and authoritatively commands His creatures to obey Him (cf. Hale v. Henkel: that which is creator rightly requires that which is created to obey it).

Yet because you are American in God's providence, you are all the more accountable. God takes most seriously that Public Law and acknowledgment of Him and His word as well as 1) all the other covenants our nation has made (from the Mayflower Compact on) with and toward Him as well as 2) the particular oaths all judges are required and expected by the people to uphold the rule of God's law.

IT IS GOD'S LAW THAT YOU ARE REQUIRED TO UPHOLD THE RULE OF; "THE RULE OF LAW" IS NOT WHAT GOVERNMENT OR MAN DECREES BUT GOD'S LAW AS IS CLEAR FROM NATURE, THE BIBLE, ENGLISH AND AMERICAN LAW AND HISTORY.

The Declaration of Independence and the father's Constitution cannot be removed from their historical context. Per US Supreme Court case GENERAL MOTORS CORP. v. ROMEIN, 503 U.S. 181 (1992) "the laws which subsist at the time and place of the making of a contract . . . enter into and form a part of it," Thus the Christian worldview and Christian common law prevalent at the time and place the founding documents were written, entered into, and formed a part of said Declaration and Constitution (both effectively contracts with the American people). Similarly, in Mattox v. U.S., 156 US 237, 243, the court ruled: "We are bound to interpret the Constitution in the light of the law as it existed at the time it was adopted." Original intent governs. It is important to understand that the common law directly involves general Christianity. The common law is required by the Seventh Amendment. The common law, as seen both by both Supreme Court cases and English law (e.g. King Alfred the Great's Book of Laws (or Dooms) (c. 893 AD), Magna Charta, Blackstone's Law Dictionary, On the Laws and Customs of England by Henry de Bracton and others) is what defines the meaning of the terms and words our government's documents and laws use. Further, the very terms and their definitions have fixed, non-evolving meanings. As Harvard Professor Raoul Berger's meticulously documented book, Government by Judiciary: The Transformation of the Fourteenth Amendment" states:

It has long been a canon of construction that when the draftsmen employed common law terms, the common law "definitions," as Justice Story stated, "are necessarily included as much as if they stood in the text" of the Constitution." Berger footnotes this to "United States v. Smith, 18, U.S. (5 Wheat.) 153, 160 (1820), James Madison's Report on the Virginia Resolutions to the Virginia House of Delegates (Sess. 1799-1800; 4 Elliot 563 and Chief Justice Marshall's view in Ex parte Bollman, 8 U.S. (4 Cranch) 75, 93-94 (1807) where he wrote: "for the meaning of habeas corpus resort may unquestionably be had to the common law." [emphasis added]

Christianity, which arises from the Bible, is and has always been a part of the common law in America as many authorities such as the US Supreme Court in Church of the Holy Trinity v. US 143 U.S. 457 (1892) have stated:

"There is no dissonance in these declarations....They affirm and reaffirm that this is a religious nation. These are not individual sayings, declarations of private persons....They speak the voice of the entire people.... in Updegraph v. Commonwealth, 11 S. & R. 394, 400, it was decided that "general Christianity, is, and always has been, a part of the common law of Pennsylvania; . . .not Christianity with an established church and tithes and spiritual courts, but Christianity with liberty of conscience to all men." [emphasis added]

The 1892 Supreme Court ruling came after a 10-year study of the matter. "...the Supreme Court examined literally thousands of documents that had anything to do with the founding of this country—every state constitution, all of the compacts that led up to 1776, all of the various decision of the courts. Finally, they said: 'This is a religious people. This is historically true. From the discovery of this continent to the present hour, there is a single voice making this affirmation....These are not individual sayings, declarations of private persons; they are organic utterances; they speak the voice of the entire people....these and many other matters which might be noticed, add a volume of unofficial declarations to the mass of organic utterances that this is a Christian nation.'" [emphasis added] (Church of the Holy Trinity v. U.S.; 143 U.S. 457,

1 <https://publiushuldah.wordpress.com/category/judicial-abuse/>

To this day, said Supreme Court opens each session with the invocation: "God save the United States of America", acknowledging God, our need for God, and our need for God to save the United States of America.

FAR FROM MEANING RELIGIOUS MATTERS SHOULD HAVE NOTHING TO DO WITH GOVERNMENT, SEPARATION OF CHURCH AND STATE WAS ONLY MEANT TO BE INSTITUTIONAL IN NATURE. Separate jurisdictions of church and state were taught even in the Bible (cf. 2 Chronicles 19: 4-11; Romans 13: 1-6; 1 Timothy 3: 1-7). Yet the fathers understood that all of life is inherently religious and that God and His Son Jesus as Lord and Savior of all of life alone could bring truth and prudence to organizing a government and nation such that the people's rights and government powers were both well balanced and all things done according to God the Creator's law.

These facts have tremendously important significance for this matter. All the founding documents were written not in a vacuum but in the context of the father's day and worldview, which clearly was ever taking tremendous shape and character from the Bible. Learning the original intent of our founding documents comes by reading them, the Federalist Papers (see online), and more. For the meaning of their words see <http://webstersdictionary1828.com/> for Webster's 1828 Dictionary of the American Language. Over time, meanings can change so just judgment requires courts and "the people" to carefully ascertain the meaning of words written in America's governing documents.

While there are many excellent books proving the enormous influence Christianity had on America's genesis and governing law³, attorney Dr. John Eidsmoe in Christianity and the Constitution highlights a crucial fact:

Two professors, Donald S. Lutz and Charles S. Hyneman, have reviewed an estimated 15,000 items, and closely read 2,200 books, pamphlets, newspaper articles, and monographs with explicitly political content printed between 1760 and 1805. They reduced this to 916 items, about one-third of all public political writing longer than 2,000 words. From these items, Lutz and Hyneman identified 3,154 references to other sources. The source most often cited by the founding fathers was the Bible, which accounted for 34 percent of all citations.... The most cited thinkers...were not deists and philosophes, but conservative legal and political thinkers who often were Christians. They include, in order of the frequency of citation, Montesquieu, Blackstone, and Locke—all of whom were professing Christians.⁴ [emphasis added]

Said William Blackstone (1723-1780) was the most cited legal scholar in America's founding father's writings. Blackstone wrote: God's laws are "those superior laws" and "upon these two foundations, the law of nature and the law of revelation [the Holy Bible], depend all human laws; that is to say, no human laws should be suffered [allowed] to contradict these." Of the Creator's law he wrote: "It is binding over all the globe in all countries, and at all times; no human laws are of any validity, if contrary to this; and such of them as are valid derive all their force and all their authority, mediately or immediately, from this original. The doctrines thus delivered we call the revealed or divine law, and they are found only in the Holy Scriptures." (William Blackstone, Vol 1 of 4 Commentaries on the Laws of England (Philadelphia, PA: Childs & Peterson, 1765//1860 (42) as quoted in The Doctrine of the Lesser Magistrates by Matthew J. Trewhella p. 21).

“Blackstone’s work involved the compilation of the common law. It was predicated on the fact that law was based on an understanding of God and His authority. In his chapter entitled “Of the Nature of Law in General,” he explained that “when the Supreme Being formed the universe, and created matter out of nothing, he impressed certain principles upon matter from which it can never depart and without which it would cease to be....Man, considered as a creature, must necessarily be subject to the law of his Creator, for he is entirely a depended being....And consequently as man depends absolutely upon his Maker for everything, it is necessary that he should in all points conform to his Maker’s will. The will of his Maker is called the law of nature.” - So Help Me God, by Roy Moore, page 80, (quoting Blackstone’s Commentaries 1, 38-39).

As said Declaration, Supreme Court cases, James Madison’s Notes on the Constitutional Convention and Public Law 97-280 and so much more makes indisputably clear, America’s final authority⁵ for government, its courts and its people is God’s Holy Bible (world encompassing moral law, the Declaration (1776), father’s Constitution (circa 1787, as amended 1791 with Bill of Rights), Alabama’s Constitution (1901) and Declaration of Rights, analogous statutes and court precedents and the common law which common law: 1) the Seventh Amendment guarantees the people of Alabama and America per synecdoche⁶ in all matters⁷, not only in a Trial by Jury; and said common law 2) both Supreme Court cases (specified herein and supporting documents) and English law (e.g. King Alfred the Great’s Book of Laws (or Dooms) (c. 893 AD), Magna Charta, Blackstone’s Law Dictionary, On the Laws and Customs of England by Henry de Bracton and others) shows directly involves general Christianity.⁸

THAT HOMOSEXUALITY OR LESBIANISM IS AGAINST GOD’S LAWS AND AGAINST THE COMMON LAW IS CLEAR AND INDISPUTABLE. Many things in America’s history and the state’s laws (which the Supreme Court had no authority to overturn because: 1) neither God 2) nor the Constitution gave it power to do so, and 3) the Constitution expressly in the 9th and 10th Amendments reserved the rights and powers to the people and the states to follow God’s laws, duties and to guard the God given rights of the people. THERE ARE NO OTHER RIGHTS THAN THOSE THE DECLARATION AND CONSTITUTION DECLARE ARE CREATOR GOD GIVEN. Either then the state enact laws reflective of His law and so helps people’s rights or they violate them by transgressing His law.

5 Anything repugnant to the Bible is not binding on Cl per Isaiah 8:20-22; Acts 5:29; 2 Timothy 3:16-17 et al The common law taught (maxims as well) that if ever God’s law and man’s contradict, God’s must be obeyed and not the latter.

6 “A synecdoche (/sɪˈnɛkdəkiː/, si-NEK-də-kee; from Greek συνεκδοχή synekdoche, meaning “simultaneous understanding”) is a figure of speech in which a term for a part of something refers to the whole of something, or vice versa. Synecdoche - Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia - <https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/SynecdocheWikipedia>

7 This is clear both from analogously 1) the Code of Alabama 1975: “The common law of England, so far as it is not inconsistent with the Constitution, laws and institutions of this state, shall, together with such institutions and laws, be the rule of decisions, and shall continue in force, except as from time to time it may be altered or repealed by the Legislature.”; and this is clear from 2) “Harvard Professor Raoul Berger’s meticulously documented book, Government by Judiciary: The Transformation of the Fourteenth Amendment” which states “It has long been a canon of construction that when the draftsmen employed common law terms, the common law “definitions,” as Justice Story stated, “are necessarily included as much as if they stood in the text” of the Constitution.” Berger footnotes this to “United States v. Smith, 18, U.S. (5 Wheat.) 153, 160 (1820), James Madison’s Report on the Virginia Resolutions to the Virginia House of Delegates (Sess. 1799-1800; 4 Elliot 563 and Chief Justice Marshal’s view in Ex parte Bollman, 8 U.S. (4 Cranch) 75, 93-94 (1807) where he wrote: “for the meaning of habeas corpus resort may unquestionably be had to the common law.” [emphasis added] – at <https://publiushuldah.wordpress.com/category/judicial-abuse/> .

8 Church of the Holy Trinity v. US 143 U.S. 457 (1892): “There is no dissonance in these declarations....They affirm and reaffirm that this is a religious nation. These are not individual sayings, declarations of private persons....They speak the voice of the entire people.... in Updegraph v. Commonwealth, 11 S. & R. 394, 400, it was decided that “general Christianity, is, and always has been, a part of the common law of Pennsylvania; . . .not Christianity with an established church and tithes and spiritual courts, but Christianity with liberty of conscience to all men.” [emphasis added]

The reputed "father of our country" George Washington was most clear on his view of sodomy: "On Mar. 10, 1778, at Valley Forge, Gen. George Washington approved the dismissal from service of Lt. Frederick Gotthold Enslin for "attempting to commit sodomy" with another soldier."

THIS IS A DAY CALLING FOR INTERPOSITION, NULLIFICATION IF THE SUPREME COURT WILL NOT RECONSIDER AND REVERSE ITS NULL AND VOID RULING FOR LACK OF GOD'S AND CONSTITUTION'S AUTHORITY

LEARN MORE ABOUT INTERPOSITION AND NULLIFICATION

As a leader, it is your God given duty and right to stand against immoral and unconstitutional rulings. God has given you the authority and the duty to stand for righteousness, even when it means you disagree with higher authority. Above all learn from Scripture your duties. A good summary of some of what it requires is found in Pastor Matthew Trehella's  ENCLOSED

BOOK. This book does an excellent job showing the biblical and historical doctrine of interposition and the lesser magistrate. Please read the copy of his book which is included with this letter. Many other statesmen have read it and been positively influenced by it, realizing that they have the authority to stand against evil, even when perpetuated by judges and other rulers.

Today is not a day for cowards. It is not a time to be nervous and seek approval from men. It is time to be bold and courageous and care only about God's approval who will judge the living and the dead at the appearing of Christ Jesus. God calls you to be faithful now. We need strong leaders who fight for the truth and become inspirations to the many Christians who are sickened and righteously angered with the increasing wicked trends in our government.

Remember how Chief Justice Roy Moore was persecuted and thrown out of office, yet God restored him (see Psalm 75 below). Don't fear the federal government, fear God for God alone sets men up or takes them down from office and holds every man's life in His hand; therefore "fear Him and keep His commandments."

The very purpose of America was to enable people Christians to be able to live out their lives as God called them to in Scripture and thus as they had the God given right to do (see the DVD Monumental). Thus to see Christians and Americans rights to do what God requires as well as to abstain from what He forbids should make us outraged. It is a time to be outraged at how men think they are above the law of the Creator God and His Son Messiah Jesus:

"I am outraged that a nation claiming to be "under God" now legally, institutionally as well as culturally mocks the God of glory."

-Senior Pastor Dr. Harry Reeder, pastor of Briarwood Presbyterian Church of America, in Reflections on SCOTUS Obergefell Opinion #1

(<https://harryreeder.wordpress.com/2015/07/23/reflections-on-scotus-oberkeful-opinion-1-2/>)

Similar strong righteous anger has been expressed by a great many other pastors I have heard.

This letter was in large part written and then in God's amazing providence its urgent message strongly confirmed by an email I found in my email box Sunday night: see attached Exhibit D Eagle Forum email: "'Where is the Supreme Court of Alabama on gay marriage?" by Eunie Smith and Dr. John H. Killian, Sr." manifestly evidencing that not only myself but tens or hundreds of thousands of other Christians and Americans are concerned. Said email confirms what else I had already written:

9 <http://cnsnews.com/news/article/george-washington-drummed-out-soldier-infamous-crime-attempted-sodomy>

All across this country people who are obedient to the God of our fathers (generally evangelical Christians), who have fought and died for this country, are suffering persecution or are facing the possibility of persecution for doing what God gave them the duty and thus right to do. Alabama Supreme Court: it is your God given duty and right to protect the righteous. For instance, in obedience to God's word, they though with love, and peace towards their neighbors refuse to violate their consciences and God's law (such as: "Do not...share in other people's sins" - I Timothy 5: 22) by refusing to participate in, recognize or otherwise help homosexual or lesbian persons do what is wrong according to God's law. For which refusal they have lawsuits against them from such persons. Your duty is to protect the righteous. It is to forbid and not permit sodomites or lesbians or other distorted relations (animal and human etc) to be called or treated as married.

Exodus 23: 2: "You shall not follow a crowd to do evil; nor shall you ... turn aside after many to pervert justice." Be faithful.

Instead, you must be like David in Psalm 101

I will sing of mercy and justice;
To You, O LORD, I will sing praises.
I will behave wisely in a perfect way.
Oh, when will You come to me?
I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.
I will set nothing wicked before my eyes;
I hate the work of those who fall away;
It shall not cling to me.
A perverse heart shall depart from me;
I will not know wickedness.
Whoever secretly slanders his neighbor,
Him I will destroy;
The one who has a haughty look and a proud heart,
Him I will not endure.
My eyes shall be on the faithful of the land,
That they may dwell with me;
He who walks in a perfect way,
He shall serve me.
He who works deceit shall not dwell within my house;
He who tells lies shall not continue in my presence.
Early I will destroy all the wicked of the land,
That I may cut off all the evildoers from the city of the LORD.

Again, God clearly says this is your duty as judges especially in places like Psalm 82:

A Psalm of Asaph.
God stands in the congregation of the mighty;
He judges among the gods.
How long will you judge unjustly,
And show partiality to the wicked? Selah
Defend the poor and fatherless;
Do justice to the afflicted and needy.
Deliver the poor and needy;
Free them from the hand of the wicked.
They do not know, nor do they understand;
They walk about in darkness;
All the foundations of the earth are unstable.

I said, "You are gods,
And all of you are children of the Most High.
But you shall die like men,
And fall like one of the princes."
Arise, O God, judge the earth;
For You shall inherit all nations.

In God's providence again, as Exhibit E shows, Eagle Forum sent another email the day I signed this which documents how "More than sixty prominent legal scholars have issued the following statement on disobedience to Obergefell v. Hodges:

"We are scholars and informed citizens deeply concerned by the edict of the Supreme Court of the United States in Obergefell v. Hodges wherein the Court decreed, by the narrowest of margins, that every state in the country must redefine marriage to include same-sex relationships.

The Court's majority opinion eschewed reliance on the text, logic, structure, or original understanding of the Constitution, as well as the Court's own interpretative doctrines and precedents, and supplied no compelling reasoning to show why it is unjustified for the laws of the states to sustain marriage as it has been understood for millennia as the union of husband and wife."¹⁰

You are called to be faithful to God to whom you are accountable. As America's Declaration of Independence articulates, He alone gave you and all men their "life, liberty" and rights. God alone was the true Source of America's liberty and its maintainer, yet that same blood bought liberty has been abandoned for the old Deluder Satan's promised "goodies" which are but poison, sickness and death. Based on his study, research and learning over decades, I give this court the same assurance Rev. John Knox Witherspoon gave the founding fathers: the Creator, the God of the Christian Bible in its 66 books, alone gives men their rights to "life, liberty" and others.

Read Scriptures (e.g. Psalm 2) and see in the light of its pages how history is just the outplaying of exactly what it assures and warns of: "Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people." (Proverbs 14: 34). Scripture reveals and history corroborates that God through His Son Jesus saves and blesses individuals (and nations temporally) that trust Him and show that trust by their obedience to His law and punishes and curses those individuals (and nations temporally) that do not trust Him and show it by disobedience to His laws. Scripture simultaneously charges you before God, the Lord Jesus and His holy angels, warning you that if you refuse to acknowledge God's Son and His commandments, He will refuse to acknowledge you when you stand before His judgment seat (Matthew 10: 32) and assuring you that if you honor Him, He will honor you (I Samuel 3: 20). God does not play games. He is utterly faithful to His Word as my and the other signature's in the attached documents confirm.

As many historians have articulated, God through Jesus Christ alone graciously gave America the great and cherished gift of liberty. We must understand it is a gift; that is, because we do not deserve it because we have broken His commandments- it truly ultimately only came through the redemption purchased by His King and Son Jesus His Anointed One's bloody death at the cross. By raising His Son from the dead three days later, God has given assurance of His Son's veracity and authority over all men and nations (Psalm 2; Acts 13). Without Him, without the good news about Him being preached from Israel in His days and ever since, and without His gracious turning of human hearts towards Himself, America's liberty would not be (see footnote¹¹). He maintained that precious gift America long enjoyed.

¹¹ Dr. D. James Kennedy's What if Jesus Had Never Been Born? provides excellent documentation how all of this is true.

The Bible tells us "...where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty" 2 Corinthians 3:17. But we have grieved and angered His Holy Spirit by our sins. Having turned from righteousness, having corrupted public servants who are compromised or cowardly, our liberties are eroding or have in measure vanished. While gracious to all who call on Him in truth, the Spirit who inspired Psalm 75-76 speaks these relevant words that call all of us to fear Him in this situation:

To the Chief Musician. Set to "Do Not Destroy." A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.
We give thanks to You, O God, we give thanks!
For Your wondrous works declare that Your name is near.
"When I choose the proper time,
I will judge uprightly.
The earth and all its inhabitants are dissolved;
I set up its pillars firmly. Selah
"I said to the boastful, 'Do not deal boastfully,'
And to the wicked, 'Do not lift up the horn.
Do not lift up your horn on high;
Do not speak with a stiff neck. ¶"
For exaltation comes neither from the east
Nor from the west nor from the south.
But God is the Judge:
He puts down one,
And exalts another.
For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup,
And the wine is red;
It is fully mixed, and He pours it out;
Surely its dregs shall all the wicked of the earth
Drain and drink down.
But I will declare forever,
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.
"All the horns of the wicked I will also cut off,
But the horns of the righteous shall be exalted."...

To the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.
In Judah God is known;
His name is great in Israel.
In Salem also is His tabernacle,
And His dwelling place in Zion.
There He broke the arrows of the bow,
The shield and sword of battle. Selah
You are more glorious and excellent
Than the mountains of prey.

So does Dr. Gary De Mar in his THE CASE FOR AMERICA'S CHRISTIAN HERITAGE. Kennedy's book cites leading American educator Dr. Samuel Blumenfeld's who demonstrates in his Is Public Education Necessary? "the roots of education for the masses goes back to the Reformation and, especially, to John Calvin." Blumenfeld writes: "The modern idea of popular education- that is, education for everyone-first arose in Europe during the Protestant Reformation when papal authority was replaced by biblical authority.... it became obvious to Protestant leaders that if the reform movement were to survive and flourish, widespread biblical literacy, at all levels of society, would be absolutely necessary." This carried down and manifest itself through the Puritans and Pilgrims in their 1647 "Old Deluder Act", the New England Primer, Congress' passage of the Northwest Ordinance (1787), McCuffey's Eclectic Reader's, America's universities (Harvard, Dartmouth, William and Mary, Brown, Princeton, New York, Yale, Northwestern and others all had Christian roots. Rev. John Witherspoon as Princeton's president declared: "Cursed be all learning that is contrary to the cross of Christ." (p. 53). This is merely education. On pages 58-61 Kennedy quotes historian after historian who as well traced America's republicanism, separation of powers, liberty and rights as well back to Calvin in Geneva, and before him, to the good news of Jesus the Messiah.

The stouthearted were plundered;
 They have sunk into their sleep;
 And none of the mighty men have found the use of their hands.
 At Your rebuke, O God of Jacob,
 Both the chariot and horse were cast into a dead sleep.
 You, Yourself, are to be feared;
 And who may stand in Your presence
 When once You are angry?
 You caused judgment to be heard from heaven;
 The earth feared and was still,
 When God arose to judgment,
 To deliver all the oppressed of the earth. Selah
Surely the wrath of man shall praise You;
With the remainder of wrath You shall gird Yourself.
 Make vows to the LORD your God, and pay them;
 Let all who are around Him bring presents to Him who ought to be feared.
 He shall cut off the spirit of princes;
 He is awesome to the kings of the earth.

If God mockingly laughs at men's angry resistance toward Him (Psalm 2), and causes such wrath to turn around in the end to praise Him (cf. Pharaoh in Exodus or Sennacherib in Isaiah), He claims the "remainder of wrath" - all of it in the universe. Like His other matchless attributes- love, grace, mercy and compassion, such a thought should rightly make us fear God for He is a righteous and terrifying Judge when angered. Everyone of us as individuals needs to know of our speaks of our fearful and desperate need to cling to Jesus as our only lifeboat without Whom we otherwise sink and perish like those outside the lifeboats that were on the Titanic.

So Alabama Supreme Court, use your God given and Constitution's authorization to Interpose and Nullify any and all orders, laws, decrees or other claimed/under color of law authorities that disagree with or are repugnant to God's supreme law or the man made supreme laws of America's and Alabama's Constitutions!!!

Perhaps some of you find you are already not doing what God requires otherwise and or not committed to doing what God requires in this matter. I urge you to resign your office and recuse yourself from all proceedings on this matter.

For those who are biblically qualified for your office and who are ready to repent of any of sins and seek to trust and obey the Creator and His Son, the words of Joshua 1 have relevance:

This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success. "Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of good courage; do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.

May the Almighty Maker of heaven and earth cause you to keep and obey His gracious and mighty Holy Spirit's merciful yet forceful call in Psalm 2 to trust and obey His Son King Jesus:

"...be wise, O kings;
 be instructed, you judges of the earth.
 Serve the LORD with fear,
 and rejoice with trembling.
 Kiss the Son, lest He be angry,
 and you perish in the way,
